CHILDREN'S DAY

As we celebrate Children's Day in our School, let's think about the wise words of Chacha Nehru: "The children of today will make the India of tomorrow." Every child here has the power to shape our nation's future.

Children's Day reminds parents, teachers to give every child the unconditional love, care, and support they need to grow up to be responsible and kind adults. Children are the true strength and future of a nation.

SCHOOL PICNICS

Picnics provide opportunities for students to bond with their classmates and teachers, fostering relationships and social skills. Outdoor picnics promote physical activity and exposure to nature, essential for overall health and well-being. The students were all set to have a fantastic day with their friends and teachers.

MOCK PARLIAMENT

Mock parliaments are usually used as educational tools. They allow students and participants to experience the processes of debate, deliberation, and lawmaking typical of real parliaments and legislatures. They are often based on the rules and procedures of an existing national or sub-national legislature. This focus on replicating real bodies promotes understanding of how different governments function. Mock parliaments also serve other purposes beyond pure imitation. Some aim to advocate social or political causes.

VEGETABLE MARKET DISPLAY

The "Buy and Sell" concept for kids can be explained in a fun and simple way, turning it into a learning experience about basic economics, money management and trade.

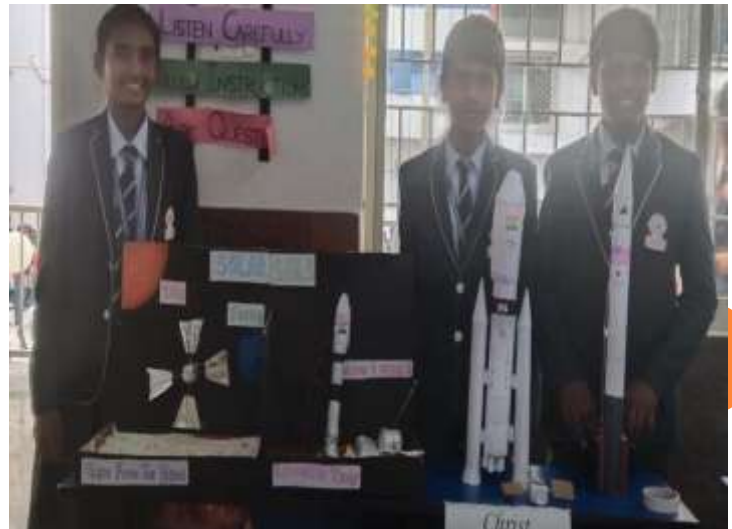

When you buy something, you give money in exchange for something you want. When you sell something, you give it to someone else and they give you money in return. It's like a fair trade where both people get something they like!
